Greetings!

Time has come to remember Tim Hubbard again with a new Chardonnay release. In a distinctive way to begin the fifty - ith year and appeal to broader wine markets outside of Ohio.

All of you as consumers know Lake Erie and share its vintage to vintage diversity. Discover its annual personality. Now in Face Book you can pass your take and impressions - spread the word

As regional recognition grows Lake Erie, its reputation, with expanded interstate shipping can fight for acceptance in the press and consumers. Those knowledgeable and with interest in wine personalities of Lake Erie soils on vintage Pinots and Cabernets.

The Dr. Frank concept rules . . . the five great vinifera come first for wine region recognition and long term future.

Puppies on the way. Like us on Face book . . . Remembering Tim and . . .

Looking forward Thank You . . .

Cheers

Pinot Trail

The Pinot Trail guides tourist and wine lovers to winegrowers doing Pinot Noir, (Pinot) Chardonnay Pinot Gris so they stay in touch with all new wines as each winemaker captures what's called Terroir - unique nose and palate you sense. Also Regional Pride . . . What Lake Erie does best! It's coming soon. All the best in fun exploring and tasting.

Spring - New Life Beginning 50 th year

*Thank you Tim for vision support and life . . .as Markko starts its last half century . . .
Now with vines, the source,
returning with vigor, resume the path and "Dr Frank's Way" for "every drop of enjoyment from the juice" . . . the quest.*

*Thank you for all your support in this quest for what vines and wines need you help focus winegrowers to their task along the Lake.
Pinot Gris has the spotlight next with many wineries already producing. Thank you for joining the quest. . . the beverage of moderation .*

Cheers,

Amie and crew
